February 12, 2019

ALL ACADEMICS AT UCSD

SUBJECT: Nominations for Academic Senate Distinguished Teaching Awards 2017-2018

The Committee on Senate Awards of the San Diego Division of the Academic Senate invites you to submit nominations for the 2018-2019 Academic Senate Distinguished Teaching Awards in the following categories:

- Distinguished Teaching Award, Senate Members
- Barbara and Paul Saltman Distinguished Teaching Award, Non-Senate Members
- Barbara and Paul Saltman Excellent Teaching Award, Graduate Students

Up to five members of the Academic Senate, three non-Senate members, and three graduate students will be honored with the award at a reception this Spring. Awards for Senate members are $1,500 each, the Saltman Awards for Non-Senate Members are $1,000 each, and the Saltman Excellent Teaching Awards for Graduate Students are $500 each. Funds for the awards and the reception are generously provided in partnership with the Chancellor and donors to the Barbara and Paul Saltman Endowment Fund.

Nominations can come from the Department Chair, Program Director, College Provost, faculty, students, or alumni, but must be submitted to the Committee on Senate Awards via the Chair or Director of the nominee’s primary department or program. Input on nominations should be encouraged by posting and distributing the call letter to faculty, students, and teaching assistants. The Chair or Director formally nominates the candidate(s) and prepares the dossier for submission to the Committee. Nomination due date: March 15, 2019. Send to the Committee on Senate Awards via email to Darlene Salmon at desalmon@ucsd.edu

The file accompanying each nomination should outline the qualities that identify the candidate as a distinguished teacher, should contain supporting material as specified in the “Guidelines for Nominations of Distinguished Teaching,” and should document the nominee’s contributions to the educational mission of the University. Nominating guidelines can be found at http://senate.ucsd.edu/grants-awards/senate-awards/distinguished-teaching.

The Awards Ceremony and Reception, held at the Faculty Club, are an opportunity to convey the importance placed on teaching by academic departments and programs and to underscore the high quality of teaching at UC San Diego. Your participation in the nomination process and the ceremony provides deserved recognition of excellence in teaching. Your department/program is also honored, as each recipient’s name will bear the citation “Distinguished Teaching Award” in the UC San Diego General Catalog.

Thank you for taking the time and energy to honor teaching among your faculty colleagues and graduate students. If you have questions, please contact Darlene Salmon at desalmon@ucsd.edu or 858-534-0101.

Barbara F. Walter, Chair
Committee on Senate Awards