A)  Definition
   An Undergraduate Instructional Apprentice is an undergraduate student who serves as an assistant in an undergraduate course under the supervision of a faculty member. The purpose of the apprenticeship is to learn the methodology of teaching through actual practice in a regularly scheduled course.

B) Guidelines
   1) An Undergraduate Instructional Apprentice shall be an upper division student. [Am 2/24/09]
   2) Students are not permitted to assist in courses in which they are enrolled.
   3) An Undergraduate Instructional Apprentice must have a minimum grade point average of 3.0. Departments may establish higher grade point average requirements. [Am 5/24/83]
   4) The faculty instructor is responsible for the course content and for maintaining the overall quality of instruction, including supervision of Undergraduate Instructional Apprentices. He/she has responsibility for all grades given in the class. [Am 5/24/83]
   5) The instructor is expected to meet regularly with the Undergraduate Instructional Apprentice to evaluate the student's performance and to provide the direction needed for a worthwhile educational experience.
   6) An Undergraduate Instructional Apprentice may receive credit on a Pass/Not Pass basis only.
   7) A student may not be an Undergraduate Instructional Apprentice more than once for the same course for credit.
   8) A student may not be an Undergraduate Instructional Apprentice in more than one course in a quarter.
   9) The total credit accumulated as an Undergraduate Instructional Apprentice shall not exceed eight units.

C) Procedure
   All departments/programs using Undergraduate Instructional Apprentices shall submit to the Undergraduate Council a description of the role of the Undergraduate Instructional Apprentice, as part of the petition for approval.
   Any deviation from the guidelines above must be explained and justified in a memo accompanying the petition.
   Any major change in the function or duty of the apprentice in a course should also be approved by the
